

Hui-Fang (Mavis) Shang was born in Kaohsiung, Taiwan. In 1996, she earned her ED.D. degree at University of Southern California in USA. Currently she is a Full Professor of the Department of Applied English at I-Shou University in Kaohsiung. Her expertise and research interests include TEFL and curriculum/instructional design.

I was selected as an outstanding social youth in 2001.
(photographed with 陳水扁總統)

My husband (James) is very considerate to me. He is a professor of Department of Information Engineering at National Kaohsiung University. We got married on December 28, 1997.

I have a son (Tim) and a daughter (Wen). The photo was taken on Halloween, 2007 at I-Shou International school when they were 9 and 7 years old.

Both of them won the second place of the Presidential (National) Math Contest (1st and 3rd graders) in December, 2007.

We had a trip to Japan in June, 2004.

We went to Las Vegas and Denver in October, 2004 to present my two papers in the conferences.

In January 2005, we had a trip with my parents-in-law to Australia.

We went to San Francisco in June, 2005 to present my paper in the conference.

We went to Hawaii in January, 2007 to present my paper in the conference.

A trip to Canada in July, 2007 (My husband presented his paper there)

We went to New Zealand in July, 2008 to present my paper in the conference.

A trip to Korea in August, 2009

A trip to Hokkaido (北海道) in January, 2010

We went to Hong Kong in July, 2010 to present my paper in the conference.

A trip to Singapore and Malaysia in July, 2011

A tour to France,
Switzerland, and Italy
in August, 2012

I presented a paper at a conference in Hong Kong in December, 2013.

It was a great trip to USA and Canada with my family members in July, 2013.